Ground Floor, Hub Building, Building 863, 234 St Kilda Road, Southbank

For 10 years the Wilin Centre for Indigenous Arts and Cultural Development has connected Indigenous visual, design and performing artists with a pathway to their future in the arts. Situated at the heart of Melbourne's arts precinct, the Wilin Centre for Indigenous Arts and Cultural Development fosters innovation in the research, development, advocacy and presentation of Indigenous arts.

Every year, the Wilin Centre holds a special welcoming orientation program called Wominjeka.

Indigenous Students at the VCA and MCM (undergraduate, honours and graduate) are warmly invited to attend Wominjeka to meet other Indigenous students of the Faculty, prepare for the academic year ahead, learn about the First Peoples of Melbourne, and share in fun and memories over food and drink.

For more information about Wominjeka, contact Eugenia Flynn, Student Programs Coordinator, on 03 9035 9382 or email eugenia.flynn@unimelb.edu.au.
